

08.06.07

meet the artist

Yael Atzmony

AIDA

meet the artist

08.06.07

MARCELLE KLEIN

Please join us for an informal lunch and conversation with AIDA artists Marcelle Klein and Yael Atzmony following the completion of their residency at the Watershed Center for Ceramic Arts.

► Monday, August 6th 12:30-1:30pm

110 east 59th street, 26th floor

► RSVP to Sharon Shaked by Wednesday, August 1st

(212) 931.0100 email: sharonshaked@acbp.net

Yael Atzmony is an accomplished ceramist and teacher. She has been a guest artist at acclaimed institutions in Japan, Australia and Germany and has participated in group and solo shows throughout Asia, Europe, Israel and the U.S.

Marcelle Klein has 20 years of experience as an independent ceramist. In creating her artwork she draws inspiration from her studio environs in Israel and her childhood home of South Africa. Her work has been shown at group and solo exhibitions in Belgium, Israel, and the U.K. In 2003 she was a participant at AIDA's inaugural booth at SOFA Chicago.

IMAGE: Marcelle Klein; "Untouched", Stoneware with Terra Sigillata, Smoke Fired, 15 cm high, 2007

IMAGE: Yael Atzmony; "Burned Orange Vase", Raku Fired Silkscreen, 53 x 31cm, 2000

110 east 59th st.
26th floor
new york, ny 10022
www.AIDAarts.org